

THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA IN HUNTSVILLE
DISTINGUISHING SPONSORED PROJECTS FROM GIFTS

Number      07.02.05
Division     Office of Sponsored Programs
Date           April 14, 2012

The funds are awarded following a competitive application or bid process.

Funding is awarded based on specific budget categories, and permission must be sought from the sponsor to change the budget.

Federal, state, or other governmental fiscal compliance policy governs the proje

e the energy efficiency of homes, offices, or modes of transportation

Phase I, Phase II SBIR/STTR, commercial contracts and some state contracts/grants.

Development is systematic use of the knowledge and understanding gained from research for the production of useful materials, devices, systems, or methods, including the design and development of prototypes and processes.

not result in academic credit.

bibliographies, or cataloging.

enhancements, TmBT1t68(0 1 144.)6m)-(e)6h)-3.0 Tm[e]JTET EMC /P AMCID 23DC E

Frank B. Stewart

